Have You An Account?

This is a serious question, one at which some folks take offense, yet salesmen are under the necessity of asking it. Some folks deal near home, settle infrequently, never investigate to see whether they pay more than they should and too often allow their accounts to go long over due. If you don't care what the family expenses are it's a poor way to do if you want to leave your children in affluent circumstances when you are gone. Now it is quite an advantage to have an open account at a well-known house, who can execute your order promptly. Often persons say they don't want an account and will pay in a few days. But we cannot keep memoranda of charges; it isn't safe or good business. The stock found in ordinary stores is usually stale, uninviting and inferior, while the stock in our store is turned so frequently and so carefully watched that it is at all times fresh. Our stock in trade consists of the luxuries and delicacies from every civilized nation. Send for our catalogue and prices and note the variety offered. Telephone us—240. We supply all nationalities.

HOW TO MAKE CABINET PUDDINGS.

Cold Delicacies For a Delicious Warm Weather Dessert.

Butter and sugar 6 small earthen cups; small teaspoons will do, as they do not appear on the table. Fill them about half full of "lady fingers" cut in dice and mixed evenly with 2 tablespoonfuls of currants and 1 candied citron cut in the thinnest bits. Prepare a custard of a pint of cold milk, 3 eggs and 4 tablespoonfuls of sugar. Season the mixture with one-quarter of the yellow rind of a lemon and pour the custard gradually on the pieces of "lady fingers" in the mold, so that it will be absorbed. Set the cups in boiling water as before, and let the pudding bake 40 minutes. Set them away to be cold, and then put them on the ice.

When they are well chilled serve them with a sauce of whipped cream. Beat to a stiff froth half a pint of rich cream. Add 2 heaped tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar, sifting it in. Continue to beat and add slowly half a cup or a wineglass of maraschino or cherry if more convenient. Serve the puddings on a low crystal platter, each surrounded by the whipped cream sauce. Sprinkle over the cream a teaspoonful of bright green candied angelica cut in bits and a teaspoonful of candied cherries cut in quarters.

A "Welcome" Spoiled.

On one of General Grant's visits to the City of Mexico in the early eighties, the city, not wishing to be outdone by the other capitals of the world in its treatment of the great hero, assigned him quarters in the Minería, erected a triumphal arch, displaying the word "Welcome" in large letters, and prepared an elaborate banquet in his honor.

To meet the expenses of the feast, so the story goes—it was a way they had of doing things there then—the city withheld one day's pay from the police force.

The day after the banquet a policeman was standing beneath the triumphal arch gazing thoughtfully up at it.

The breeze had taken some liberties with it, but the principal damage done to it was the removal of the first letter of the word "Welcome," thus turning it, with a little stretch of the imagination, into Spanish.

At last the policeman gave utterance to his thoughts by reading aloud the inscription as it then stood and commenting upon it.

"El come," he read. "Si señor. Que car-r-umba! Pero nosotros pagamos." (He eats. Oh, yes. Plague take him! But we pay for it.)—Youth's Companion.

His Thirst.

"It's awful to see a man with such an insatiable thirst for newspaper notoriety."

"How so?"

"Why, he drinks barrels of patent medicines."—Detroit News.

A Victim of Science.

"Gambay's in a dreadful plight."

"How's that?"

"Why, his surgeon put a rabbit's eye in place of the one he lost, and his nose twitches like mad the whole time."—New York Herald.

BY POLICE AT CALLAO.

Inquiry here confirms the story coming from Lima to the effect that the State Department has lodged a demand with the United States charge of legation at Lima for the release of the mate of the American bark "Uncle John." He was ashore on December 19 last at Callao, and was arrested because of his constant demand for "Rainier Beer." On tap or in bottles at the Criterion Saloon.

Printed ducks are just as good, if not better than anything else for boys' shirt waists. They wash and wear well, too very important considerations. Kerr has them in a large variety of patterns at eight yards for one dollar.

Don't be persuaded to accept what is not really good in enlarged portraits, just because you have given an order for one. King Bros. will give you something infinitely better and cheaper than you can get anywhere else in town.

We don't expect you to give us the preference if what we have to sell is inferior or our prices higher than our rivals, but when we offer a superior article for less money, you do yourself a wrong by not looking into the matter. Call and see our samples of portrait work. King Bros., 110 Hotel street.

Bubbles or Medals.

"Best sarsaparilla." When you think of it how contradictory that term is. For there can be only one best in anything—one best sarsaparilla, as there is one highest mountain, one longest river, one deepest ocean. And that best sarsaparilla is—? There's the rub! You can measure mountain height and ocean depth, but how test sarsaparilla? You could if you were chemists. But then do you need to test it? The World's Fair Committee tested it,—and thoroughly. They went behind the label on the bottle. What did this sarsaparilla test result in? Every make of sarsaparilla shut out of the Fair, except Ayer's. So it was that Ayer's was the only sarsaparilla admitted to the World's Fair. The committee found it the best. They had no room for anything that was not the best. And as the best, Ayer's Sarsaparilla received the medal and awards due its merits. Remember the word "best" is a bubble any breath can blow; but there are pins to prick such bubbles. Those others are blowing more "best sarsaparilla" bubbles since the World's Fair pricked the old ones. True, but Ayer's Sarsaparilla has the medal. The pin that scratches the medal proves it gold. The pin that pricks the bubble proves it wind. We point to medals, not bubbles, when we say: The best sarsaparilla is Ayer's.
